MISSOULA--

The press and supporters will have the first shots at the University of Montana Grizzly football team in 1970.

Press and Booster Day for the UM 1970 Grizzlies is scheduled for Sunday, August 23 at 1:30 p.m. on the Montana practice field located east of the Adams Field House.

Coach Jack Swarthout and his Grizzlies will be suited up for pictures, introductions and the first workout of the 1970 season. Following the workout, a reception for the team, press and supporters will be in the Century Club room of the field house.

A group of local supporters called the "Grizzly Barons," headed by John T. Campbell will escort each player on the field.

Coach Swarthout expects 57 candidates to report on Aug. 23 and will begin formal workouts on Monday, August 24. The first UM game is Sept. 12 in Billings against North Dakota.
